Dear Mary,

Thank you for the letter notifying me of the SEAALL Scholarship. I accept it with much appreciation and will use it to attend the SEAALL 1993 Annual Meeting. I understand that I am expected to submit a brief report detailing how the money was spent after attending the meeting. That will be a good exercise for me, as research and publication are stressed here at Georgia State University.

Thank you and your committee for providing me with this opportunity during a lean budgetary time. I hope to meet you at SEAALL.

Sincerely,

Barbara G. James
